UNIVERSITY OF PIKEVILLE
CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE FORM

The University of Pikeville board policy requires employees to avoid actual and the appearance of conflicts of interest. A conflict of interest exists when an employee (staff or faculty member) or family member:

• conducts business with the institution;
• uses institutional resources to promote his or her individual or family financial or other interest;
• uses confidential information about the institution to promote his or her individual or family interest;
• has a relationship with a competing institution;
• gains financially from an institutional transaction;
• assists an outside entity to benefit financially or otherwise from the institution in a manner not available to that entity’s competitors;
• lends or borrows money or property from an entity or person who conducts business with the institution;
• receives gifts from an individual or entity who conducts business with the institution;
• accepts gifts or perks from the institution not readily available to other members of the institutional community;
• promotes or participates in social or political agendas or campaigns which could have a detrimental effect on the institution.

These are broad statements that reflect many, but not all, of the actual and potential conflicts of interest prohibited by board policy.

Please disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest below:
